Note the rear view mirror. there was just one on the driver's side, not two.	And as you will see in many pictures, all the later cars had two mirrors	located lower down in a more normal way...		I see what you mean about the organic way the side mirror attaches.	1 2-door coupe body type	2 RWD (rear-wheel drive), manual 5-speed gearbox
3 petrol (gasoline) engine with displacement: 4943 cm ³ / 301.9 cui	4 torque net: 480 Nm / 354 lb-ft	5 characteristic dimensions: outside length: 4485 mm/176.6 in, wheelbase: 2550 mm/100.4 in	6	7 reference weights: base curb weight: 1660 kg / 3659 lbs	8 fuel capacity: 100 liter / 26.4 U.S. gal.	9 I'll have to drive myself there. How long will it take? How does it feel?
10	11 What is the best way to wash spilled gasoline out of clothes?	12	13 A thousand laps around the oval to recover my memory of it	14 how fast is this car?	15	16
17 From my bedroom window—	18	19 This wonderful Ferrari works flawlessly	20	21	22 top speed: 291 km/h (181 mph) (declared by factory)	23
24 The actual model was a 1985 Ferrari Testarosa	25 Red, with tan interior.	26 Just one mirror—on the driver's side.	27	28	29 0-60 mph (s): 5.8 0-100 mph (s): 6.1	30 fuel consumption and mileage: 10/15 mpg (U.S.)
31			My Ferrari in the driveway			Ok, love you

...and suddenly realizing that the flat looks like a crack den littered with cigarette butts, aluminum foil, cut off straws and dirty dishes and clothes, that my friends are getting increasingly mad at me for not returning their calls, that I look pale and wasted and the garden's completely overgrown. That's always when I am disgusted with myself and think I've had enough now for a while. We then spend about six weeks catching up with everyone and everything.

It always feels like coming back from somewhere. We are inviting our friends round for dinner, we try living our clean and pleasant life, getting fit and healthy, going shopping, doing work in the garden and going to the cinema.
